Like a richly colored flame whose bright tip draws upward, memories thrill our hearts and lift silence with boundless joy as the thirteenth year of the "new" Norcom's history, 1965-66, is enfolded in the ensuing pages of this book.

Could we have spent a year more challenging -- more sublime? In the words of Dante we voice an immortal truth:

"Often a retrospect delights the mind."

Dedication

Mrs. Rufae Cleonia J. Holmes is a native of Georgia but has spent most of her life in Virginia. She is a graduate of the high school department of Hartshorn Memorial College and earned the Bachelor of Arts degree from Virginia Union University in 1930, the Master of Arts degree from Boston University. Mrs. Holmes continued her graduate studies at the Universities of Pennsylvania and Minnesota. In her professional career on the Eastern Shore and in Portsmouth, Virginia, she is respected as a dedicated teacher and supervisor. Since 1951 she has been supervisor of instruction and in personnel recruiting in the Portsmouth Public School System.

The talents, interests, and contributions of Mrs. Holmes are varied. For over 30 years she has held positions of leadership in community activities and is an active worker in local and state denominational organizations. For her versatility, creativity, and devotion to many good causes, she has received national citations. In recognition of her dynamic and constructive leadership in secular and religious education Virginia Union University conferred upon Mrs. Rufae Holmes the degree of DOCTOR OF PEDAGOGY in May 1965.

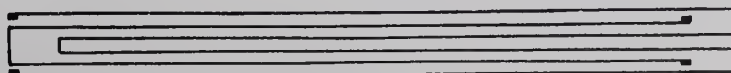

To One Who Has Given Outstanding
Services to Education,
Has Served Long with Concern for Adults and Students

EVER-FLOWING MEMORIES

Just as a stream flows into a river and becomes a part of it, Mr. Lysander Sampson flowed into the hearts of Norcomites and became a part of them for seventeen delightful years as custodian and friend. Mr. Sampson is a man who devoted thirty years of service to the Norfolk Naval Shipyard and still found time to come to Norcom to assist his brother, Mr. Edward Sampson. After assisting his brother, who gave some twenty-eight years of service to Norcom, Mr. Sampson continued the job of head custodian.

When Mr. Sampson was asked why he was retiring, he replied "I'm getting old." Mr. Sampson may think he is getting old but his years spent here at Norcom will always be remembered and the memories will never grow old.

Mr. Sampson relaxes at home in his easy chair enjoying his favorite cigar. His eighty years seem younger in his gait and his humor.

An abstract geometric composition featuring several overlapping shapes. A large, light gray shape forms a background. Overlaid on this are several black shapes: a large rectangle on the left, a smaller rectangle on the right, and a horizontal rectangle at the bottom. A white, irregular shape cuts across the center, containing the text. The overall effect is a layered, geometric pattern.

Planning for another day's work are:
STANDING: Alton Southall, Thomasine Epps, Sharon Lopez, Ernestine Dixon. SITTING: Mary Harris and Kenneth Lillard.

THE PRESIDENT SPEAKS

The Student Council takes this opportunity to heartily congratulate the graduating Senior Class of 1966.

You and others like you all across the nation represent the hope of America -- the heirs of Democracy. You are about to participate in the world's greatest production -- the pageant of America. You have been rehearsing in the wings for years in student government organizations in both high and junior high schools. Now, you are on the legitimate stage of democracy and the curtain is about to rise. America has placed her confidence in you. Let her know that she has invested wisely. Make it your goal to be a responsible citizen of America and of the world. If you do, you'll be a credit to mankind and to your mentor -- Norcom High.

ISTRATION

"A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands."

-- Josiah G. Holland

Our principal and torch-bearer, Mr. W. E. Waters, typifies these ideal characteristics through his administrative wisdom and concern for the youth of our nation.

His administrative wisdom has served as a torch which has led Norcom through difficulties to the crest where she stands as a symbol of a carefully chosen staff, a timely and flexible curriculum, and varied, purposeful activities.

His interest in the youth of the nation has served as a torch to light the way to the full utilization of the opportunities Norcom offers for the development of "strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands."

Thanks to our torch-bearer, Mr. W. E. Waters . . . We, too, may serve nobly when "the torch is passed.

Mr. William E. Waters
Principal

Superintendent of Portsmouth Public Schools Dr. M. E. Alford lunched with Principal W. E. Waters and retired teachers during American Education Week, Nov. 7-13.

Mr. Albert T. Edwards
Assistant Principal

"I shall light a candle of understanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out."

-- Apocrypha, II Esdras XIV, 25

The "eternal flame" of understanding carried by Mr. A. T. Edwards has enabled him to show sound judgment in his dealing with students and in performing other duties in the interest of the school.

His torch has lighted the way to patience, obedience, sincerity, justice, wisdom, and friendliness. These qualities embodied in our assistant principal are sought by those who aspire to greatness.

Heavenly Father, thou who art our Creator and our God; We thank thee for all the blessings thou hast bestowed upon us, more especially for the children and our relation to them. We ask that thou wilt endow us with wisdom and strength as we care for and nurture them. May we be thine instrument to lead our children to a realization of thy power and thou love. Bless thou our fellowship as we work for the children of our land. Lead us in steadfast and Faith toward the solution of the great problems that confront our world today. Consecrate us to thy service and to the service of all children, everywhere.

Amen

The editors, Thomasine Thornton and Robert Jackson worked in harmony.

Doris Jones, file clerk, is busy gathering materials to be used during the day.

Typists Clementine Copeland and Donald King look on as Gwendolyn King begins compiling important data.

Leslie Gatling looks on as Elizabeth Brice and Marie Thomas post important notes about the Patrons Contest on the board.

Paulette Williams, Verona Haywood, Gloria Hardy, and Onroe Tetterton are busy viewing final copies before sending them to press.

Bernadine Vaughan, Shirley Perry, Martin Bullock, Willie Wilson, and Daryl West study the enormous ads secured during the year.

Linda Bailey, Marilyn Goings, Dwight Washington, and Martel Sinclair are shown selecting the students who have solicited the most patrons.

Linda Jones, Jannett Batts, Ellen Amos, Jo Ann Nesbit, and Jacquelyn Parker are shown viewing final layouts.

THE CLASS SONG

O Norcom High, Our Alma Mater true
All through the years we've shown our love for you.
With saddened hearts we too must part,
But we'll keep you in our heart.
And ever raise your banner high
O Norcom never shall die
O Norcom High, ever our school
We bid farewell, we bid farewell to you.
O Norcom High, we're leaving with a sigh.

THE BEST IS YET TO BE (Class Poem)

In the year of '62, we entered Norcom's door;
Knowing we were in high school and knowing not much more.
We were young and full of fun, full of joy and glee;
We were like a rudderless boat in the middle of the sea.

In 1963 we made a stroke toward the shores;
After a year of work and toil, we'd all become sophomores.
We were growing broad in mind and growing more mature;
It was due to help and guidance of our teachers I am sure.

In the year of '64, another stroke was made;
We had done our work just as we should, and made the eleventh grade.
We were nearing shore and could nearly see,
the path which held a sign;
Becoming seniors was the only thing the juniors had in mind.

In the year of '65, the final stroke was made;

We had done our best in every class and made twelfth grade.
We had stepped ashore and were following the path
that meant success;
We were thinking only of graduating and forgetting all the rest.

And now in 1966, the best is yet to be;
Will we make good of what we've learned? Well you just wait and see.
We'll do our best to make the name of Norcom
stay on top;
Because this class will try to be the cream of Norcom's crop.

We leave you now dear Norcom High, with tears
and heavy hearts;
Our lives have been a play, and you have played the leading part.
We leave you now dear Norcom High, with sorrow
and regret;
But yours dear Norcom is a name we never will forget.

-- Melvin A. Vaughan

IN MEMORIAM

If There Is a Teen-age Heaven

If there is a Teen-age Heaven,
Larry did get in.
With him, he took his loving traits and his special grin.
As we know, the Bible says love,
honor, and obey.
To me, this seemed to be Larry's purpose day after day.
Yes, if there is a place for a teen,
Larry will be there, next to Our King!

And if there is a celestial team,
Larry will be on it.
He had sportsmanship, ability,
but most of all school spirit.
Can't you see him handling that gold and pearly ball, Gladly carrying it down the satin
court at the Master's call?
Yes, if up there, there is a team . . .
I'm sure that Larry's heart will gleam!

Yes, if there is a Teen-age Heaven,
Larry did go through.
But, he won't stay there very long for he will graduate too!
Oh yes, he must get his diploma that he's worked for, oh, so long.
And then he'll move to the everlasting home, having all his work done.
Yes, if there is a Teen-age Heaven,
Larry did get in.
And when we take our journey home,
We'll again see this true friend!

-- Amanda Battle

LARRY DEWITT HALL

August 10, 1948 -- December 16, 1965

An abstract geometric design featuring two vertical columns of fine, parallel lines. A large, solid black triangle points to the left, positioned between the two columns. A solid black horizontal bar is located at the bottom left. A thin diagonal line runs from the top right corner towards the bottom left, intersecting the other elements.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The 1966 yearbook staff of I. C. Norcom High School takes this opportunity to thank those persons who through their cooperation and kindness helped to make this the ninth annual of the "new" I. C. Norcom High School.

The members of the staff wish to thank the persons of the community who patronized the 1966 NORCOMIUM by buying patron tickets; to the businessmen who purchased space for advertisements; to the photographer, Mr. John Bailey and his assistants for their patience and cooperation in working with the staff; and far from being the least, to the student body for their participation in the patrons contest and subscriptions.

The following students excelled in the senior division of the patrons contest: Clarence Charity -- 4A-6, first place; Regina Long -- 4A-3, second place; and Barbara Jones -- 4A-2, third place. (September 1965 classification).

Because of the individuals mentioned above and the enthusiasm and diligence of the staff, it is hoped that the 1966 NORCOMIUM will be a great success.

EPILOGUE

. . . And the richly colored flame will continue to burn in our hearts because the memories of the times at Norcom, like the eternal flame, are unquenchable.
